Pls. note:

1. You are kindly requested to fill the attached Response Sheet and return the same by email or fax to fgkant@utanet.at and ghecker1@t-online.de and transfer the amounts to below indicated account.
2. You are requested to do your own Hotel booking soonest online or by phone with reference to AFE-ADB c/o Mrs. Friederike Kantner.
3. Changes in the program may become necessary depending weather and on how timely the group can follow the program.
4. A car is not really needed during our program. Vienna is easily reached by train, by air or by overland bus. Parking by valet service: €35/day; Alternative: Parkgarage at Karlsplatz near Hotel at €7. -- per 24 hrs).
5. Regarding the Opera tickets the cost of €120. - per ticket are only indicative. But for making the bookings it would be of importance to indicate your interest and transfer the estimated cost already at this stage. Any savings will naturally be reimbursed. Again, like in Dresden, the program, although very attractive is actually not the only important part, but it is to experience the interior and ambience of the Vienna Opera House.

Jerome Robbins (October 11, 1918 – July 29, 1998) was an American theater producer, director, and choreographer known primarily for Broadway Theater and Ballet/Dance, but who also occasionally directed films and directed/produced for television. His work has included everything from classical ballet to contemporary musical theater. Among the numerous stage productions he worked on were On the Town, High Button Shoes, The King And I, The Pajama Game, Bells Are Ringing, West Side Story, Gypsy: A Musical Fable, and Fiddler on the Roof. Robbins is a five time Tony Award winner and a recipient of the Kennedy Center Honors. He also received two Academy Awards, including the 1961 Academy Award for Best Director with Robert Wise for West Side Story. A documentary about his life and work, Something to Dance About, featuring excerpts from his journals, archival performance and rehearsal footage and interviews with Robbins and his colleagues, premiered in PBS in 2009.
